MEDIA PERSONALITY

---

RADIO & TV HOST | CREATIVE PRODUCER | SPORTSCASTER | PR CONSULTANT | VOICEOVER ARTIST

BACKGROUND

Princess Mobeng is a dynamic 26-year-old media personality, Engen Sportscaster, radio & tv host, creative producer, and PR professional whose star continues to rise across South Africa's entertainment and communications landscape. With seven years of professional experience in the industry, she has crafted a reputation for excellence, versatility, and an unmistakable on-air presence.

BIG BREAK

Her national breakthrough came in 2024 when she won the prestigious national Engen Sportscaster Search, securing her place as one of the country's most promising young broadcasting talents. In August 2025, she further cemented her influence by being appointed Spokesperson for the Mpumalanga International Film Festival, reflecting her growing impact beyond entertainment into public communication and representation. The same year, she also took on the position of PR Consultant for the Phakama Mpumalanga Festival 2025, a major cultural event in the province.

GROWTH

Princess is chasing a decade in the entertainment industry & has spent four impactful years in radio, including more than three years in commercial radio as an on-air personality, following an earlier period in community radio. She currently serves as the Radio Producer of The Affair, the popular Midmorning Show on Rise FM, Mpumalanga's only commercial radio station. Known for her sharp interviewing skills, warm delivery, and strong storytelling instincts, she continues to shape engaging radio experiences for listeners across the province.

BREAKTHROUGHS

Over the years, Princess's talent and dedication have earned her multiple recognitions. In 2023, she was nominated twice at the Mpumalanga Gospel Music Awards — for Best National Gospel Radio Presenter and Best Female National Gospel Radio Presenter — affirming her influence within the inspirational broadcasting space.

She is also the founder and owner of TRA Creations, a multimedia and PR agency specializing in content production, public relations, marketing and social media management. Through her company, she supports businesses, creatives, and public figures in building powerful and authentic brands.

NEW AVENUES
